WOULD IT BE MORE CHEERFUL for you and your wife and the rest of the family to be in a new home, that you know would soon be yours? You build the home and we will finance it for you, agreeing to look to our payments in no larger sums than the rent would amount to. After you have paid one-fourth of the loan, you have a year grace in case of sickness. If you are paying rent, you have no grace after the first of the menth. Which do you think is the safer?
